MOVING SILENCE in Thessaloniki!

International silent short films accompanied by live music.

March 10-11, 2017

Contemporary Art Center of Thessaloniki | Warehouse B1, Port

Time screenings: 20:00

Moving Silence, the Berlin-based platform for contemporary silent film is returning to the Contemporary Art Center of Thessaloniki for the second time, March 10 -11, 2017, with the support of the Goethe Institut Thessaloniki, in the framework of the 19th Thessaloniki Documentary Festival.

Since 2009, the network of international artists has been organizing screenings of film programs without sound with live music. The poetry of silent programmes that goes back to the very beginning of cinema is expressed through the contemporary aesthetics of the digital and analog image, and sound production. The event includes an international program of short films accompanied by live music played by musicians based in Thessaloniki. The entry is free with voluntary contribution

Parallel event: exhibition 'GIF. Morphologies of a copyleft tale'. The exhibition brings together silent film and GIF culture, exploring how a GIF is created by cracking its structural modules and tracking its transformations when it goes viral. The exhibition concept is based on Vladimir Propp's book 'Morphology of the folktale', a study on the transformativity of the anonymous and collective story formation. It is collaboration between Moving Silence with HMKW Berlin University of Applied Arts, the DER FILTER group and the software librarybox project. The exhibition can be accessed virtually through a pop-up local network that develops during the Moving Silence events. Bring along your smartphones and tablets!

Curators: Matthias Fritsch, Co-Founder & Co-Director of Moving Silence & Eirini Papakonstantinou, Music Program Curation and Coordination, Art Historian, SMCA Curator
